I think it was in September ast that Judge Latham and some of the others directors purchased the two new Blake pumps for temporary use. They could not have gotten anything better for the purpose at the time, or anything so quickly. It was merely for temporary use until the new ma-chinery came. When this arrived, every energy was used to shove and push forward i putting it up. It was almost impossible t get men to work, the place was so bad and the work so disagreeable. My orders were to get men at all events, if I had to pay five or ten dollars a day. In putting down the shoe into the well, it broke several times

This was unavoidable and was no fault of the Water company. It could not have been helped, as the iron just gave way.
